

Nutley Family Service Bureau Mission Statement

The mission of the Nutley Family Service Bureau is to promote the emotional and social well-being of individuals and families through counseling, and to provide community outreach programs, guidance and information regarding other available social services to the community.

In existence since 1913, all of NFSB's professional staff have a master's degree in a human service field and are available for individual, family or group counseling. In addition, the staff is involved in a broad array of community outreach programs ranging from coping with adolescents and dealing with aging parents to helping individuals survive job loss. Staff members are trained to assess drug and alcohol abuse and find appropriate treatment.

Each year, hundreds of clients are served. Some clients come in on their own, while others are referred through clergy, police or employee assistance programs. Fees are charged on a sliding scale based on income, but no one is refused service because of inability to pay.

Through its 90-year history, the services provided by the NFSB have changed to meet the needs of the community. But its fundamental mission has remained the same ... to provide strength to families under stress.
